

About the Journal

Acknowledgements

We would like to express our gratitude to Dean Steven Anderson for supporting our efforts to continue publishing undergraduate student's original work in JUSWR: A Journal of Undergraduate Social Work Research, Policy Reviews and Other Creative Works. We also thank the School of Social Work faculty for the encouragement they extended to the authors of our 6th issue. We further wish to acknowledge and extend a very special thanks to the faculty and PhD student advisors for their extraordinary mentoring, guidance, and support on behalf of the student authors.

Dr. Rachel Garthe is our Undergraduate Research Program Coordinator. She brings her enthusiasm and her extensive knowledge of research to our advisory board. We are grateful for her expertise, guidance, and steady support.

Last, but far from least, the Advisory Board and Senior Editor wish to express our pride in and gratitude for our undergraduate peer editors. These stellar students understood they were making a commitment: to participate in mandatory training, to review materials, and to offer viable, supportive recommendations to the student authors. We especially are grateful for their flexibility and dedication. Well done! You'll notice among our Senior Editors, there are five newly minted BSWs. These five editors gave us their support and expertise over the years, and we truly appreciate their dedication. Liz began as a peer editor her freshman year and her positive critiques will be missed. Reed and Maddie became editors during the COVID shutdown and demonstrated their flexibility during those chaotic times. Sarah and Alexis both have contributed to the journal as authors and peer editors. We want to thank these five exceptional students for everything they have done for our journal. Best of luck in your futures!
